

Grading Rubric:

Comparative Analysis of Neighborhood Proposal and Final Multimedia Neighborhood Storytelling Project

Student Name:

	Points Awarded
Title and name clear and present on the first page	10
Introduction Introduce the assignment by briefly summarizing the main elements of your initial neighborhood proposal. Offer an overview of your final multimedia storytelling project clear topic sentences	15
Comparative Analysis: Compare the ideas presented in your initial proposal to those in your final project	20
Summarize the evolution of your work, highlighting key takeaways from the process of revising your neighborhood proposal into the final multimedia project.	15
Sources: Uses at least 3 Strong evidence	10
Quotes/Paraphrasing: Accurately interprets/analyzes quotations and paraphrasing and connects them back to the statement	10
Sentences are coherent and strong: punctuation, spelling, capitalization and grammar are strong	10
Final draft is in MLA writing style (Times New Roman, 12 size font size, inch margin, double spaced; student's name, professor's name, class, and date in the proper format (left side); header with your last name and page # in each page on the upper right hand corner; 6 to 8 pages	10
	Total: /100